

Alexandria Gazette

TUESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 4.

BREAD ON THE WATER.—A Detroit grocer was the other day hungrily waiting for his clerk to return from dinner and give him a chance at his own noonday meal, when a boy came into the store with a basket in his hand and said: "I seed a boy grab up this here basket from the door and run, and I run after him and made him give it up." "My lad, you are an honest boy," "Yes sir." "And good bye should always be encouraged. In a box in the back room there are eight dozen eggs. You may take them home to your mother and keep the basket." The grocer had been saving these eggs for days and weeks to reward some one, in a rewarding a good boy he also got eight dozen bad eggs carried out of the neighborhood free of cost, and he chuckled a little chuck as he walked homeward. The afternoon waned, night came and went, and once more the grocer went to his dinner. When he returned he was picking his teeth and wearing a complacent smile. His eye caught a basket of eight dozen eggs as he entered the store, and he quivered: "Been buying some eggs?" "Yes; got hold of those from a farmer's boy," replied the clerk. "A lame boy with a blue cap on?" "Yes." "Two front teeth out?" "Yes." The grocer sat down and examined the eggs. The shells had been washed clean, but they were the same eggs that good boy had lugged home the day before.—Detroit Free Press.
